Note:

- † The Province of Québec and the Northwest Territories and Nunavut have chosen not to issue loans or grants under the Canada Student Loans Program. If you reside in these areas, please contact the appropriate office listed above for information on student assistance.
- * The Provinces of Alberta and British Columbia utilize an application form for part-time assistance which is different from the application form attached. If you are a resident in Canada in one of these provinces and wish to apply for assistance for part-time studies, you should contact the provincial authority in your province to obtain the proper application form.

Application for Assistance for Part-Time Studies

The Canada Student Loans Act and Regulations and / or the Canada Student Financial Assistance Act and Regulations set forth the legal rights and obligations of a student and should be referred to in the case of uncertainty or dispute. With respect to the assistance available to Part-Time students through the Canada Student Loans Program (CSLP), the following definitions apply:

- Canada Student Loan (CSL) - a debt obligation incurred by a qualifying student on entering into a loan agreement and which is owed to a lending institution or Her Majesty in Right of Canada.
- Canada Student Grant - financial assistance awarded to qualifying students for the specific purpose of paying eligible costs associated with the undertaking of a program of studies, as set out by the CSLP.
- Grant amounts are non-repayable provided that the eligibility criteria is maintained for the duration of the study period for which the grant was awarded.

This application form will be used to assess your eligibility for Part-Time Canada Student Loan assistance as well as Canada Student Grant assistance for Part-Time Studies.

Incomplete applications cannot be processed. Please ensure that all requested information is provided. You must have a valid Social Insurance Number to apply. Print clearly and sign the application in ink.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE APPLICANT

- To apply for Part-Time assistance, fully complete sections A, B, C and D of the attached application form.
- Have the Educational Institution at which you are going to be pursuing your Part-Time studies complete Section E.
- Submit the completed application form, along with proof of your current income (and spouse's and common law's, if applicable) to the appropriate authority in the province in which you are residing when you are in Part-Time studies. (See list of Appropriate Authorities on reverse of the application). In some provinces you must submit your application directly to your educational institution. Contact your educational institution to be sure of where to submit this completed form.

Note: If you are a previous recipient of a Grant for Part-Time Studies, you must also provide documentation indicating successful completion of all previously grant funded course(s).

Special Note to Applicants with Permanent Disabilities

The Canada Student Loans Program provides for the availability of relaxed Full-Time Canada Student Loan Eligibility (e.g., reduced course loads) and additional assistance for student's with permanent disabilities who demonstrate that they have a permanent disability which restricts their ability to participate in post-secondary studies.

If you are an applicant with a permanent disability, you may wish to contact your provincial student aid office and / or financial aid office at your educational institution prior to completing this application form, to obtain further information on the various Permanent Disability provisions available through the Canada Student Loans Program.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION

- Complete Section E on the attached application and verify that all information provided in Section D is complete and correct.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Eligibility for Program Assistance

The Canada Student Loans Program provides assistance for individuals who undertake their program of study on a Part-Time basis. In order to be eligible you must:

- Be a Canadian citizen, a permanent resident of Canada, or, as of August 2003, a protected person (as defined by the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act);
- Be a resident during your period of study of a province or a territory that issues Canada Student Loans;
- Demonstrate financial need;
- Be enrolled in 20-59% of a full course load at a designated Educational Institution;
- Pass a credit check if you are 22 years of age or older and applying for a Canada Student Loan for the first time; and
- Must not have more than $10,000 in Part-Time Canada Student Loan at any one time.

Note: If you are in default on Part-Time and / or Full-Time Canada Student Loans issued prior to August 1, 2000, contact your lender to remove the restricted status of your loan(s). If you are in default on previous loans issued after August 1, 2000, you will not be eligible for further assistance until you receive clearance from the Canada Student Loans Program by contacting the National Student Loans Service Centre at 1-888-815-4514.

2. Eligible Costs - Applications will be assessed based on the following costs (if applicable)

- Compulsory school fees, including tuition;
- Books and supplies;
- Transportation to and from classes;
- Child care costs incurred to attend classes;
- An incidental allowance of $10 per week, per course.

Applicants taking studies through correspondence or distance learning may not be assessed child care and transportation costs, except for those periods where in-class attendance is mandatory (e.g., examinations, etc.).

3. Resources

An applicant, (and spouse or common law, if applicable) is required to report all family income from wages, government sources, liquid assets, income from investments, gifts, lottery winnings and other sources of income. The combined gross family income (income before deductions) will establish eligibility under the Canada Student Loans Program.

4. Assistance Provided

Eligible applicants under the Canada Student Loans Program will be given assistance in the amount requested if the request is not more than the assessed need or the maximum amounts allowable.

5. Repayment

Repayment of principal portion and accrued interest of the Outstanding Loan Balance is due at the latest by the last day of the seventh (7th) month following the month in which the applicant ceases to be a Part-Time Student.

6. Verification

Applicant (and spouse or common law) must sign a waiver releasing income tax data for verification.

Applicant (and spouse or common law) will sign a certification on the application form that the information given is true and he / she is aware of the terms and conditions and will abide by them.

Every person who, in respect of a student loan or other financial assistance to a student, knowingly makes any false statement or misrepresentation, including by omission, in an application or other document or knowingly provides any false or misleading information, including by omission, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Details of your educational program and costs must be completed and signed by an official of your educational institution. If you have previously negotiated Part-Time Canada Student Loans, you must fully answer any questions concerning them.

Note: You must negotiate all Canada Student Loans, Full-Time and Part-Time, at the National Student Loans Service Centre.

Canada Student Grants

Grant for Students with Permanent Disabilities

Part-Time Students with permanent disabilities may be eligible to receive $2,000 per federal student loan year to help cover the costs of tuition, books and accommodations.

Grant for Part-Time Students with Dependants

Part-Time Students with up to two dependants under 12 years of age may be eligible to receive $40 per week of study. Students with three or more dependants may be eligible to receive $60 per week of study.
